DISEASE WAS PARALYSIS.

Cause of Death of Child in Saxtons River is Confirmed.

Bellows Falls, Sept. 27.—Health Officer J. S. Hill has received a report from the state laboratory of hygiene at Burlington confirming the belief that Cecily Clough, the two and a half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clough of Saxtons River, who died Saturday, was a victim of infantile paralysis. The family moved to Saxtons River last Wednesday from Lisbon, N. H. This is the first death from the disease in southern Vermont.

FAIR HAVEN, Sept. 27.—Marion, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quinn of this town, died yesterday after a week's illness with infantile paralysis. This is the only case of the disease which has developed at Fair Haven this fall.

BURLINGTON, Sept. 27.—The 24th victim of infantile paralysis in Vermont was reported to Dr. Dalton, secretary of the state board of health.

The case is that of a small child in a family that came to Brattleboro from Pittsfield, Mass., the child developing the disease at once, almost upon arriving there.

Dr. Taylor of the state board force went to Underhill yesterday to see Mrs.
Bartlett, the first victim of paralysis in the county, who is improving. The other Chittenden county case is that of Orvis, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Remington of Essex Center.

GREENFIELD FAIR.

Attendance at the High Water Mark—Good Racing Yesterday.

GREENFIELD, Mass., Sept. 27.—The attendance at the second day of the 67th annual Greenfield fair promises to be a record breaker. All of the trains and trolley cars have brought immense crowds and hundreds of automobiles are parked on the grounds and at other advantageous points. The number of persons present yesterday was larger than at any first day in recent years. The cattle entries overflow their quarters, although the space for this department has been greatly increased. In all other departments the exhibits are well above the usual standard, both in quality and quantity.

The racing yesterday was the best and fastest in years every heat going to a contest. The 225 class was put in two divisions and a purse of $300 offered for each, an unusual arrangement, made necessary by the large number of entries in that class. The fastest heat of the day was the final one in the second division of the 225 class, Paul M. going in 2:17.4 and taking the race in straight heats, Bay, a Marlboro horse, took the 225 class in straight heats. Extra heats were necessary in the first division of the 225 class, and it will be finished today.

In the running race, Master Key, with Wood up, won in straight heats, Black Nell, owned in Barnardston and ridden by Miss Irene Betters of Leom-minster, made a strong fight. Three falls occurred in the 220 class, Lady Wilcox fell on the back stretch in the second heat. In the third heat Louis Sylvester of Greenfield was making a strong bid for second place when Brown Johnson broke and in the mixup the Greenfield horse and Marcus were both out of the race.

The production and distribution of electricity in Edinburgh has been made a municipal monopoly.

BRATTLEBORO LOCAL.

There will be a meeting of the S. F. of A. this evening in Red Men's hall.
Besides the regular meeting there will be a program consisting of music and recitations. Refreshments will be served.
The second rehearsal of the Sunday school convention chorus will be held at 7:30 this evening in the Baptist chapel. About 30 more singers are needed and the men's section is especially weak. The rehearsal will begin promptly.

Today the Empire presents The World feature, The Gray Mask, featuring Edwin Arden and Barbara Tennant. Tomorrow Harold Lockwood and Mae Allison will be seen in The House of Scandals, also the third chapter of The Secret of the Submarine.

Today the Princess theater presents Mabel Taliaferro in the Metro production, The Snowbird. Tomorrow's attraction will be Blanche Sweet in the Paramount feature, The Thousand Dollar Husband, also Billie Burke in the 12th chapter of Gloria's Romance.

Prof. J. Winthrop Plattner, D. D., of Andover Theological seminary, who will preach the sermon at the installation of Rev. Richard H. Clapp in the Centre Congregational church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock, is a man of unusual ability and forcefulness. He will be well worth anyone's while to hear him. The service will be open to the public.

The advertised flying of man-lifting kites yesterday did not materialize. The assistant of Samuel F. Perkins, who specializes in flying kites, spent several hours on the roof of the Brooks House yesterday afternoon, but said the wind was too light and fluky to enable him to get the kites up into the air. Several hundred school children were disappointed.

Hazen Stockwell and Harold Putnam of this town and Homer Higley of Panama, who is spending a vacation at his home in West Brattleboro, gave a dancing party last evening in Academy hall in honor of Ricardo G. Granados of Mexico and New York, who is a guest of Mr. Higley. Fifty invitations were issued. The hall was attractively decorated with gold and red and music for dancing was furnished by Wales and Dugan. Punch was served during the evening.

TOWNSHEND.

Handsome Gifts Presented.

Mrs. Emma Franklin was given a delightful surprise party by the Grange and T. G. R. Monday evening as a farewell before she goes to California. About 60 were present and refreshments of coffee, sandwiches, etc., were served. E. L.
Fitch spoke appreciatively of her work in the Hadassah league, the Grange and T. G. R. societies and hoped she would be as useful there as here, as it was better to wear out than rust out. Mr. Fitch then presented Mrs. Franklin in behalf of the Grange a solid gold necklace and pendant set with opals, also a thermos bottle and fountain pen from the T. G. R. S.

The Hadassah league presented her two excellent aprons and handkerchiefs. She also was given a suitcase, the first of it to be opened at Greenfield and one package each day after during the journey of five days.

Mrs. Franklin was very much pleased and tried to thank all her friends for their kindness to herself and the children, as well as for the handsome gifts, but, as she remarked afterwards, it was difficult to say all she wished at that time. All joined in wishing success and happiness to Mrs.
Franklin and the children in their new home.

Ed. Walsh has returned to the home of his sister, Mrs. Lyman Gale.

Mr. and Mrs. Gear and Miss Margaret Gear of Northampton were guests at Mrs.
John Dale's and Charles Evans' Monday.

Miss Lottie Hair of Bridgeport, Conn., and Clayton Becker of West Haven have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. Hair at the Woodbine. They motored from Hudson, N. Y.

Miss Esther Dale is here for a few days.
She will return with her mother to their home in Northampton Saturday. Mrs.
Mabel Dana and Mrs. Fred Ford and daughter, Orinda, will remain a short time at the home of Charles Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cook quietly celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sept. 21 at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Albert Franklin. Only the immediate family and Mr. Cook's twin sister, Mrs. Nellie Martin, were present. Ice-cream and cake were served and a pleasant evening was enjoyed. Their gifts included gold, silver and linen.

NORTHFIELD, MASS.

Mrs. Sarah (Knights) Wildes.
Mrs. Sarah (Knights) Wildes, 92, widow of Stephen Wildes, died early this morning in the home of her daughter, Mrs. George F. Witte. She was a daughter of Joseph and Betsey Knights of West Northfield and was born Jan.
7, 1824. She was the last survivor of a family of 11 children. Two of her children survive. They are Mrs. Witte of Springfield, Mass. The funeral will be held Saturday at 3 o'clock in the home, Rev. George Thompson, pastor of the Unitarian church here, officiating. The burial will take place in West Northfield.

BLACKMAIL GANG

CHIEF SENTENCED

William Butler Will Go to the Federal Penitentiary in Atlanta for 18 Months.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27. — William Butler, chief figure in the countrywide blackmailing conspiracy under investigation in several cities, yesterday pleaded guilty of swindling Mrs. Regina Klipper of Philadelphia.

He was at once sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment in the Atlanta penitentiary.

Butler, who was brought here from Philadelphia for arraignment, was accused of blackmailing Mrs. Klipper at an uptown hotel here in April last under the guise of a special agent of the department of justice.

Butler is the first of the alleged blackmailers to get a prison sentence.
They operated in various cities with many persons of wealth as their victims, using the Mann white slave act as a weapon.

Butler was first arrested in Philadelphia last January on the charge of having attempted to extort $8,000 from Mrs. J. Bolton Wimpenny, a wealthy resident of that city, for the suppression of a fictitious "white slave" complaint against her son, Marshall Wimpenny.

This charge fell through three weeks ago. Assistant United States District Attorney Knox of this city then took steps to have Butler brought here for prosecution on the indictment charging him with having participated in the conspiracy which resulted, it is alleged, in the extortion of $500 from Mrs. Regina A. Klipper.

Besides Butler, the indictment returned in the conspiracy case names Frank Crocker, otherwise known as the "Tango Don Juan," Arthur L. Davis, alias "Sir Robert," George Irwin and Edward Donahue.

The latter now is under arrest in Chicago charged with being concerned in the recent kidnapping of Mrs. Klipper from Philadelphia to Montreal for the purpose of obstructing justice in the trial of Irwin, who was awaiting trial in the district, Davis, also known as Don Collins, is serving a term in the federal prison at Atlanta for using the mails to defraud.

WEST BRATTLEBORO

Dr. G. B. Hunter returned last night from a two-weeks' vacation spent with his parents in Hion, N. Y.

The Philanth class of the Baptist church will hold a meeting Friday afternoon with Mrs. L. P. Taylor.

Mrs. Julia Harris was given a postcard shower Monday, Sept. 25, in recognition of her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Arthur Sanders of Springfield, Mass., spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Harris and children spent the week-end in Hins-dale with Mrs. Harris's sister, Mrs.
Brayman.

Mrs. Oscar Haas and family closed their summer home on Ames hill yesterday and returned to their winter home in Montclair, N. J.

Week-end guests at John S. Jilison's were Dr. M. Stockwell of South Hadley, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Ormsbee and Fred Cummings and family of Millers Falls, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas went today to Greenfield to attend the fair. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Prefontaine also are attending the fair.

Walter Porter, who had been in the Melrose hospital on account of injuries received to his leg while at work on the site of the new Barber building, was discharged this week. Mrs. Frank Haynes of Wilmington was discharged from the hospital yesterday and went home.

A family reunion was held Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin, when all but one of their children were present, that one being the eldest son, Joseph Martin, who lives in Montclair. Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Martin were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hadlock, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas of Cropsey, Ill., Mrs. Arthur Sanders of Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. E.
A. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Martin and George and Leon Martin. There are nine living grandchildren.

Ten women met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. J. L. Stockwell to make plans for a series of entertainments which they intend to give during the winter for the purpose of raising money with which to buy a new piano to replace the one which has "seen better days" in Academy hall. The first entertainment will be given Oct. 12 and will be a card party. The second in the series will be held Oct. 19, on which date a dance will be held. The third will be a Halloween party Oct. 31.

MRS. PHILLIPS MAY LIVE.

Woman Attempted Suicide, Fearing Conviction on Arson Charge.

BURLINGTON, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Ellen Phillips of Underhill, who attempted to commit suicide by shooting Monday, is resting more comfortably at the Fanny Allen hospital and attending physicians believe she has a chance of recovery.

Mrs. Phillips was to have been arraigned in Chittenden County court yesterday on a charge of arson and in a statement made after the shooting she said that she believed she would be convicted and preferred to die.

One bullet entered the head back of the ear and a second one grazed the top of her head.

WILLIAMSVILLE.

Mrs. A. N. Sherman went Monday to New York for a visit.

Miss Mildred Cooley of Brookline, Mass., is visiting her father, G. C. Cooley.

Miss Helen Lewis, who is teaching in Vernon, spent Sunday at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Washer went Saturday to Guilford to visit his brother, George Washer.

C. K. Lewis came from Brattleboro to attend the Grange meeting Tuesday evening, returning Wednesday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Robert White, who came Saturday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. White, returned Tuesday to Lynn.

Mrs. L. W. Brock and niece, Miss Isabel Stevenson of New York, who spent three months at Dr. L. B. Gordon's, returned Thursday to New York.

Mrs. Ray Brooks and two children of Brattleboro came Friday to visit at W. A.
Brooks's. Mr. Brooks came to spend Sunday and they returned with him.

Next Sunday will be observed as Rally day in the Methodist church. The promotion exercises of the lower classes of the Sunday school will be a feature of the program.
